THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1879.

The White House.

From the Brooklyn Eagle's Washington Letter.

The White House is still the greatest residence in America. It has cost more money than the Stewart mansion, on Fifth avenue, New York, or, with its rebuilding, returning, etc., about $1,700,000. The original cost in 1792 was about $53,000; it was begun in that year, occupied in 1800, rebuilt in 1815, reoccupied in 1818, and its porticoes completed as late as 1829. The cost room was finished only fifty years ago.

Every one of our Presidents, except Washington, has lived in this great house, and he has poked his horse's head into its portal to look up at the workmen plastering on the scaffolds. An Irish architect named Heber, direct from Dublin, via Christown, took the award of $500 for the design, and he built and rebuilt it, and his buried in the Catholic cemetery here, and his descendants are respectable lawyers and citizens of the place. A building for a private residence of 170 feet front by 68 feet deep, with one room in it 80 by 40, may yet attract Republican attention; its vestibule within the front door is alone 50 by 40 feet. Twenty acres of garden and park immediately inclose it, and on either side, each separated by only 450 feet, are buildings which cost seven to twelve millions apiece. Yet, in all its apparent antiquity, how new! The lawn is still a made plain, reaching off to the Potomac, like a desert coming to the palace stairs.

Like Versailles in the time of Louis XIV., Washington is a Government creation, and this White House is holy only by events. The President's office, which is in the second story, is also the Cabinet room, and is not a very large apartment for the White House, although about thirty or forty feet in depth by perhaps thirty feet wide, and with a high ceiling. A long table in the middle of the floor, with leather-seated chairs around it; the two windows have long lambrquin curtains of a dark bluish gray color. A large map of the United States is on the wall. The carpet is of the red tuck with large figures. The general effect of the room as one enters, is that of a library without books.

Late Hours for Eating.

From the New York Times.

One of the popular errors in this country is that which regards eating heartily in the evening as detrimental to health.

Almost any one can find a score of persons among his acquaintances who have dinner at 2 or 3 o'clock in the afternoon, because they are unwilling, later in the day to trust their stomachs with anything more solid than tea or toast. If they go abroad, they look upon the eating on board the steamer of Welsh rarebits and the like at 10 and 11 o'clock in the evening with much the same horror that they would regard an excessive use of liquor. But when once fairly brought into contact with foreign habits, say English dinners at 8 and German suppers at 10 p. m., they usually fall back to the supposition that the usage of several generations has fitted the digestive organs of foreigners to bear this excessive strain.

One very worthy American lady disseminated a doctor in Paris as expressing his competence because he recommended for some dyspeptic trouble that she should eat a hearty meal some two hours before going to bed. Fortunately, his successor took the same stand; and, though she considered the method of treatment as wholly wrong, she was persuaded into the following of it, and, what is more, was cured in spite of her illness. If our physicians would make this matter of diet really a study, it would truly repay them. It cannot be that we are differently organized from our brethren across the water, and hence what long experience has shown to be healthful for them cannot prove otherwise for us.

The strain which our American habits of eating put upon the physical system is, that it crowds the time really life-giving meals of the day, breakfast and dinner, close together, and then leaves the body to fast for sixteen hours out of the twenty-four.

Circumstantial Evidence.

In the year 1900 two men named Perry and their mother were hanged for the murder of a man who had never been murdered at all. Mr. Harrison, Lady Cam-er's steward, having been collecting his rents, suddenly disappeared. John Perry accused his mother, himself, and his brother of having robbed Mr. Harrison in the previous year, and having again robbed him and murdered him on the night when he was missed. The mother and Richard Perry denied all knowledge of the matter; but at length pleaded guilty to the first indictment under some pressure of policy.

The other indictment was not then proceeded with, on the ground that the body was not found. But John persisted in his story, and at the next assize they were all tried for murder. John then retraced his confession, and said he must have been mad. Nevertheless, the jury had already condemned. Some years after Mr. Harrison appeared alive, and thus accounted for his mysterious absence: After receiving his rents he had been set upon by a gang of ruffians, carried to the sea side, put on shipboard, and sold as a slave to the Turks.

After his master's death he escaped, and with great difficulty working his way, first to Lisbon, and thence to Dover, he arrived in England, as our law book coolly says,

"to the surprise of all the country."—Good

Words.

A Clever Swindle.

A bold swindle was recently perpetrated on the farmers about Neenah and Menasha.

Two men with a lumber wagon went through the country from house to house asking for samples of wheat to the amount of a peck or half bushel, which they said they were going to send to Chicago for inspection by Keene, the great wheat speculator, who intended getting up a corner on wheat next month and was going to send agents all through the country buying up wheat from farmers at an advance of ten cents per bushel in order to effect the corner. The men claimed to be agents of Keene. Almost every farmer complied by giving at least half a bushel which was duly numbered and the name of the contributor duly recorded to give the transaction a business-like appearance. It is said that several parties were out at the same time on this kind of an expedition and that when they each got a good load of wheat they took it to the mills at Neenah and

HOLIDAY ADVERTISERS.

During the balance of this month we will insert reading business notices, in the brief item column.

BRIEFLETS.

—Christmas presents at Moseley's.
—A common kind of a Council meeting to night.
—Pocket books in endless variety at Moseley's.
—Dara the stocking and make ready for Christmas.
—Go to Moseley's before you make your purchases of Christmas presents.
—Everybody who now looks at the mercury says "how is that for low?"
—Picture books, blocks and games of every description for sale at Moseley's.
—Remember the dance of Washington Engine Company No. 1, to-morrow evening.
—Frames finished in silk, velvet, and satin just arrived and offered for sale by Moseley.
—A full supply of fresh oysters in cans and bulk, just from Baltimore, at John Davis.
—The committee on claims will meet on Thursday, January 2, 1879, at the Court House.
—Will Palmer is taking a few days' rest from his medical studies at Chicago, and is at home.
—"Ancient Mariner," illustrated, by Dore, handsome book of the season, for sale at Moseley's.
—The Knights of Honor meet this evening. The Knights will ballot for officers for the ensuing six months.
—Frank L. Bond, son of Dr. Bond, is greeting his Janesville friends again, being fresh from his medical studies in Chicago.
—Mrs. E. A. Irwin has returned from Dubuque, and will be found at her rooms, ready to attend to the wants of her customers.
—The Christmas tree entertainment will take place at Court Street church and will be held on Tuesday evening. The exercises will begin at seven o'clock.
—Moseley Bros. will keep their store open until midnight to-night and to-morrow night in order to give every one ample opportunity to make their selections. Store crowded all day.
—Mr. C. S. Crosby has been called to Chicago by news that his wife who was visiting there has been attacked by diphtheria. She is not dangerously ill and hopes to be able to return in a few days.
—Rev. Mr. Jones addressed the ladies Saturday afternoon on "Who was Tally?" He gave an entertaining sketch, well spiced with wit and humor, concerning King Arthur and the Round Table, and other events of the far by-gone.
—Moseley has been for the past week receiving new novelties every day, all of which are adapted for Christmas presents, and they are offering them at such low prices that they are sure to sell.
—Mrs. A. F. Kelsey, of Elgin, is in the city, visiting her husband's parents. Mr. Kelsey is expected to be here in a day or two and will take part in the entertainment to be given by the Temple of Honor next Friday evening, he being a very efficient and accomplished singer.
—Mrs. A. H. Shekey, the wife of the well-known railroad engineer, died this morning after a lingering illness, she having been the victim of a slow consumption which has kept her more or less of an invalid for six years. Her remains will be taken to-morrow to Johnson's, Creek, where her parents, and where Mr. and Mrs. Shekey last summer buried one of their little ones. Two children still survive, and they and the mourning husband will receive the sympathy of many friends and acquaintances.
—Peck's Sun thus speaks of our friend Tousey, of the Times: "Wilbur H. Tousey, of the Janesville Times, is not quite as handsome as his partner, quick-witted, incisive Wilson, but under no veil will they find a kinder, softer heart, or a better kept conscience. Ten or twelve years ago they didn't have any editorial conventions without Tousey, but of late he has absented himself. President Ryan will please appoint Sam Field, Alex. Reid and Julius Keyes to examine the newly revised statutes and see what it is that keeps him from joining in with the boys. Tousey was an officer from Illinois, in the late war, ran the Jefferson Banner a good many years, was an Assemblyman in 1870, a job printer in Fond du Lac four years, and for a year or two he has been helping to make the Janesville Times a spicy paper."

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 5° below and at 2 o'clock at 2° above zero.

ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST SNEEL.

Jim Saell seems to be getting deeper and deeper into trouble. Mrs. A. J. Chapell, of Delavan, has visited the jail and identifies him as a man who about six weeks ago tried to outrage her on the Phillips farm near Delavan. She claims that the man caught her, gagged her, and then tying her to a tree tried to effect his purpose, but she managed to scream, and a neighbor coming along he took to his heels. She is confident that Saell is the man.

THE MACK CASE.

This morning the Court met at nine o'clock pursuant to adjournment, but owing to the sad bereavement which has befallen [Attorney Winans by the sudden death of his wife, a recess was taken until this afternoon, when the arguments commenced. Mr. Winans will not of course be able to participate, but the interests of the defendant will be looked after by Mr. Fetters. Mr. Todd will perhaps also make an argument for the defense. The arguments on the part of the State were opened this afternoon by District Attorney Sale, and will be closed by Mr. Bennett. The attorneys were desirous of getting the case to the jury by to-morrow night but it is doubtful whether they can complete their work by that time.

THE TEMPLE'S GOOD TIME.

The members of the Temple of Honor are leaving nothing undone to make their annual entertainment next Friday night a truly enjoyable one. The canvas has already been stretched and put in place for the dancers. The doors will be open at 7:30 o'clock, and after the other exercises are concluded dancing will commence—probably about 9 o'clock. Prior to this during the evening there will be songs by Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. J. W. St. John, Miss Dolie Patton, and Mr. A. F. Kelsey. Prof. Titcomb will preside at the organ, Prof. John Luaders, of Madison, will give a violin solo, Walter Helms will give a saxophone solo, O. H. Fetters will read a selection, and remarks will be made by Hon. J. B. Cassoday, Hon. H. A. Patterson, Dr. J. B. Whiting, Rev. T. W. Sawin, Jenk L. Jones, J. W. Sanderson and others. Berrie's orchestra will furnish music for the dance, and refreshments will be served on the European plan at T. R. Gray's restaurant.

The Christian Statesman, published in Milwaukee, prints the following very sensible note: "There is a strange perversity in society that is truly lamentable such as at present is exhibited in the trial at Janesville. A woman of alleged bad character is on trial for the murder of her husband. The court-room is crowded daily and many have to be excluded for want of room, and one third to one half of those present are women, some of them the 'high-toned.' The women's children are constantly with them. Some of the evidence is of the most disgusting kind and this seems to be the most eagerly sought after. As a correspondent informs us when a recital of the criminal incidents between this woman and her wicked paramour are given the racks of the women in the audience, are 'cranked to catch every word.' It is a shame that this should be so and if the women of Janesville have not modesty enough to stay away from such a place the court should exclude them. What kind of an education or taste must women have to appear at such a trial and with face unveiled listen to all the disgusting criminal details?"

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Do Stop That Cough!

Why in the world don't you go to the drug store and get a bottle of Hale's Cough Cordial and cure that cough, which is wearing you slowly, but so surely out? We don't ask you to take any chances on this remedy. If you have not tried it we urge you to get a bottle, and if after using one-half of it you find that it is doing you no good, you can return it and get your money back. S. E. Waterhouse, of Mazomanie, writes: "Three doses cured our little girl of one of the most aggravated coughs. We would not be without it. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle."

Coming for the Holidays, Poems of the Western Land.

Consumption lurks in Every Cough.

Every home should be supplied with "Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry." It induces the blood with its life-giving principle, and repairs the wasting tissues and imparts health to the various organs. Thousands have been restored to perfect health after having been given up to die by physicians and friends. We have seen the fading and consumptive stricken youth renew his life under its benign action. We have seen the middle-aged, the old and enfeebled restored to comfortable health. Therefore if you have a cold, distressing cough, any throat, breast or lung trouble, use promptly "Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry." Equally valuable in Asthma and Bronchitis. A full bottle 25 cts. Also, Large size $1.00, or six bottles $5. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Sold by all leading druggists.

A Medicine Chest for 25 Cents.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a good cathartic. SWAYNE'S TAR AND SASSAPARILLA PILLS are prepared expressly to meet this necessity; being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podo-platin or Mandrake, Tree Root, Sassa-parilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, produce no griping, and are truly a valuable purgative agent, anti-bilious and cathartic medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, bilious, intermittent, remittent and congestive fevers, languor, drowsiness, aching pains in the back, head, slight chills, with flushes of heat, female irregularities, and for a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual as Dr. Swayne's Tar and Sassa-parilla Pills. If your druggist or storekeeper has not got them, or will not procure them for you, we will forward them by mail on receipt of price, (in currency or postage stamps), 25 cents a box, or five boxes for $1.
